U.S. Bombers Make Strike Near Cambodian Border

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U. S. B-52 bombers made their 33rd strike of the Viet Nam war today, blasting a Viet Cong area 55 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

A U. S. spokesman said the eight-engine jet bombers from Guam struck 15 miles northeast of the provincial capital of Tay Ninh, in a area where U. S. intelligence reports have said a Viet Cong headquarters is located.

Results of the strike were not announced.

Communist broadcasts announced that the Viet Cong executed two American soldiers Sunday in reprisal for the execution of three Communist sympathizers last week by a South Vietnamese firing squad. A U. S. spokesman accused the Viet Cong of "wanton murder against American military prisoners."

Radio Hanoi identified the Americans as Capt. Humbert R. Versace of Baltimore, Md., and Sgt. L.C. Kenneth M. Roraback, whose wife lives in Fayetteville, N.C. Versace was captured October 1963 and Roraback a month later.

South Vietnamese troops claimed 48 Viet Cong were killed in an unsuccessful attempt to overrun an outpost southwest of Quang Ngai Sunday. The South Vietnamese said two Viet Cong companies inflicted moderately heavy casualties on the defenders until air attacks drove them off.

A U. S. military spokesman announced that the planes which bombed the Ben Hai bridge in the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam were American.

Two U. S. Navy planes bombed the bridge's north approach on Sept. 16 and three Air Force planes hit the south end the next day. The spokesman said the bombing resulted from navigational error due to bad weather and "similarity of terrain situated in North Viet Nam."

About 20 Vietnamese were killed, several more wounded and there was considerable property damage. Under the Geneva agreement of 1954 dividing North and South Viet Nam, military activity is prohibited in the zone. The bridge spans the Ben Hai River.

A Viet Cong company hit a small government unit 12 miles south of Saigon and inflicted heavy losses on the South Vietnamese troops, a spokesman said. He added that Viet Cong casualties were not known.

U. S. Marines on a sweep 5 miles southeast of Da Nang captured 14 Viet Cong suspects and reported they suffered light losses.

No major ground action was reported elsewhere.

U. S. planes continued heavy strikes in South Viet Nam. They flew 253 combat missions in the 24-hour period ending Monday morning. A spokesman said 360 buildings were either damaged or destroyed.

"THAT parade is fine, but I just have to get that blame bottle back," says seven months old Bobby Beardsley of Morehouse as he and his family watched the parade Saturday morning of the American Legion Cotton Carnival. The posture of his mother seems concentrated on the parade in a relaxed manner. Bobby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Beardsley, Sr.

PUXICO HIGH FHA float took first place and a $100 prize in the Cotton Carnival parade here Saturday morning before a giant crowd.

Barge Explodes, No River Traffic

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo. — (AP) — Traffic on the Mississippi River near Caruthersville was curtailed today because of a fire and explosions on a barge loaded with highly flammable ethylene.

Explosions occurred one after another as compartments on the barge broke open. One explosion was seen at Kennett, Mo., 22 miles west, and Malden, Mo., 32 miles north. The U. S. Coast Guard said the liquid is now toxic and apparently of no danger to anyone.

The Pemiscot County sheriff's office said the towboat Lady Marjorie was pushing up river three barges loaded with ethylene when the fire broke out on one of them.

Crewmen cut loose the barges when the fire was discovered. The burning barge and a second one drifted to the Missouri side of the river and snagged on a sandbar. The third barge drifted downstream where it was caught and returned to Caruthersville.

Authorities said it was not learned how the fire started. River traffic was being curtailed until the fire burned itself out.

Tribune Back On Newsstand

NEW YORK AP -- The New York Herald Tribune appeared on newsstands today for the first time since it shut down 11 days ago in support of the strikebound New York Times.

The newspaper resigned from the Publishers Association of New York Saturday, citing "economic and other considerations" for resuming publication.

Negotiations continue today between the striking AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild and the Times and between the Mailers Union and the Publishers Association.

A Guild spokesman said some progress had been made Sunday, but added: "I don't expect an early break in the deadlock, not even this week."

The Guild struck the Times Sept. 16 in a dispute over job guarantees against automation and mergers, a voice in the introduction of automation, improved pensions and a union shop agreement requiring all editorial employees to join the Guild.

All other major dailies in New York suspended publication in support of the Times, except the New York Post. The Post resigned from the association during the 114-day strike in 1962-63.

REAGAN COMES EAST

The 1964 Goldwater campaign may have been the sinking of the conservative cause but it was the making of Ronald Reagan. His impassioned television appearance on behalf of Barry Goldwater not only unleashed a flood of grass-roots campaign contributions but lifted Reagan to political-candidate stature.

Now the handsome movie star is being boomed by G.O.P. conservatives as Republican candidate for Governor of California in 1966. A California poll published August 11 showed Reagan leading Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown, 46 per cent for Reagan to 41 per cent for Brown with 13 per cent undecided. U. S. Sen. Thomas H. Huchel (R) did 10 per cent better than Reagan in the poll, but he is reported unwilling to be a candidate for Governor.

Reagan is forever having to explain just how he feels about G. O. P. arch-conservatives. Right now he is embroiled in a controversy over his allegedly warm endorsement of and by John Roussetot, a national official of the John Birch Society. Reagan is reported to have told a private meeting of Republicans that Roussetot "has offered all of his help in my campaign. . . he said he would do anything from calling me names in public to endorsement--whatever we want."

The actor ran into unexpected hot water when he agreed to appear on Tuesday, Sept. 28, in New Haven, Conn., at a rally sponsored by the strongly conservative Connecticut Republican Citizens Committee. A. Searle Pinney, Connecticut's G. O. P. State Chairman, expressed "amazement" that Reagan would lend prestige to a group now not recognized by the Republican State Committee.

Reagan's audience is sure to be hanging on his every word. His political enemies doubtless hope his words will hang him, a la Barry Goldwater. It should be an occasion worth watching.

NEW-PRODUCT GAMBLE

Introduction of a new product is an exercise in industrial faith. The hope is that consumers will find the product to their taste and enrich the company and its stockholders. But the American consumer presents an erratic target, and four out of five new products fail to gain a market foothold.

These thoughts are occasioned by news that Polaroid Corporation will introduce a new camera in the American market late in September. The "Swinger" camera will retail for $19.95--about one-third the cost of the cheapest Polaroid previously available. Company officials say it requires no threading, winding, or focusing and uses Polaroid's high-speed black and white film ($1.99 for eight exposures) which will develop in 10 seconds.

If the new camera is a sales success, it will serve as further evidence that technological innovation brings large rewards to the economy. When consumers pay less than before for approximately the same goods and services, the cost of living is lowered. By finding new ways to lower cost or build in better quality with no increase in price, American industry has helped to stabilize the consumer price index. And it is prompting extensive consumer investments in manufactured goods.

UNION SHOP BAN REPEAL PERPETUATION OF ABUSES

By virtue of crafty vote-swapping and heavy-handed steamrollering, the Democrats in the U. S. House of Representatives have won a major victory for organized labor by voting the repeal of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

But in taking from the states the right to prohibit union shop agreements the House has failed to provide even minimum safeguards against well-known union abuses which have sustained the right-to-work movement and cost organized labor much respect.

Rather than move the repealing amendment through the Rules Committee, the leadership elected to use the 21-day rule technique. This permits the bill to be brought to the floor for action quickly and under conditions satisfactory to the leadership. Although it could have done otherwise, the leadership wrote the 21-day rule resolution in such a way as to prevent important amendments, and limit debate to two hours. While it is true that the original Taft-Hartley Act was moved through the House of Representatives in 1947 by the GOP with even greater disregard for the minority, this does not in the least excuse this week's perversion of fair legislative behavior.

It is, we suppose, in the grand old tradition of legislative mores that farm state legislators personally opposed to repealing Section 14-B swapped their votes for a promise to pass a nice big farm subsidy bill later on.

Fortunately the Senate still must pass on this bill, which we oppose on the ground that the individual states should have a right to make their own decisions on such issues. And fortunately, steamrollers do not operate so smoothly in the Senate, where amendments can be proposed, debated and voted on almost without limit.

There are several proposals which deserve consideration. One would prohibit unions from discrimination against Negroes. Another would prevent spending union dues for purposes unconnected with collective bargaining such as political contributions. A third would prevent union bosses from penalizing members who challenge their decisions.

Still another would protect persons having religious convictions against joining unions from being forced to do so. Finally, the Senate should consider prohibitions against union apprenticeship and membership programs which create false labor shortages.

Big labor has shown no disposition to correct these abuses itself and before it is given a federal carte blanche to expand its union-shop dominion into 19 right-to-work states, it is logical to require corrective action.

At least in the Senate there will be a chance to bring these issues individually to a vote.

Some fresh fruits and vegetables that don't look as good as others are sold for a lower price even though they may be just as good to eat. For example, oranges with greenish skins and grapefruit with rust-colored spots on the skin usually sell for less than those that have a better color. But they taste just as good. Red-skinned apples are priced almost according to the amount of red on the skin--the redder they are the more they cost. But there is hardly any difference in taste. Onions that are misshapen or lopsided and heads of lettuce that are "loose" (not firm and heavy) often sell for less, but their eating quality is fine. Loose heads of lettuce, in fact, usually have more green leaves inside and so have more food value.

THE "SILENT" DEEP
The ocean, once thought to be a silent world, is really as noisy as a barnyard in summer. The Magazine of Catholic Living finds. Hydrophones have picked up sounds of fish gnashing their teeth as they feed, and the vibrations of swim bladders of many species have been recorded as grunts, pops, hoots, and wails. Killer whales, say the scientists, make sounds that resemble Tarzan's victory cry, and the Pacific gray whale emits noises which sound like a pencil hitting an empty box.

THE 60-CENT DOLLAR
The overtaxed American motorist scored a small gain the other day -- and that in itself is news of some importance. Yielding to public criticism, the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads decided to change the wording on signs that are placed at construction projects on the Interstate Highway System.

Instead of intimating that the federal government is giving money for these projects -- which it is not -- signs erected from now on will read, "Your Highway taxes at Work," and where the federal share of the cost is listed, "Federal Highway Trust Funds."

That's fine, as far as it goes. But to be perfectly truthful, the bureau should make the signs read, "Part of Your Highway taxes at Work."

NEW YORK (AP) -- Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: Seven out of 10 headaches are caused by nervous tension, and doctors say they hit three times as many women as they do men.

America's economic loss from traffic accidents last year came to $10 billion, according to the Insurance Information Institute. That amounts to more than $50 for every man, woman and child in the nation.

Prosperity note: The average price of a new home today is $16,597. Nearly two out of three new homes have more than one bathroom.

The more education a woman has the more likely she is to be employed outside the home. Almost 54 per cent of those with college degrees hold jobs, compared to only 30 per cent among those with a grammar school education.

If you want to live to be 100, you'd better keep your weight down. Fat centenarians are rare.

Gulping vitamin pills is no protection against the penalty of overdrinking. A Detroit medical study found that excessive drinking over a period of years can damage heart muscles even in persons who are well-nourished.

way Taxes at WORK.

The facts are that in the seven years since the current nationwide highway program began, the federal government has collected $28.5 billion in special taxes from highway users. But of that total, only $17.1 billion was spent on roads. The remaining $11.4 billion went into the general fund of the Treasury and was spent for non-road purposes.

Thus, the highway user received only 60 cents worth of road for every dollar he paid in.

Some $55 billion more will be collected from highway users by the time the Interstate Highway System is scheduled to be completed in September, 1972. Of that amount, only $35 billion will go to the Highway Trust Fund. The other $20 billion will go into the general fund, and will be spent on projects having no connection with roads.

The change in the wording of the signs may soothe our pride but it's not doing a thing for our pocketbooks.

A survey of 7,000 wrecked marriages has convinced the Rev. Fr. Francis Ripley, head of the Roman Catholic Information Office in Liverpool, England, that it is.

And while Father Ripley

blames the husband's mother more than the wife's for stirring up marital trouble, he includes mothers-in-law on both sides in pleading with them to keep hands off the married lives of their children.

To the married couples themselves he suggests:

"Get a home of your own far enough away to make it a bit of an effort for mothers to visit too often."

Now, it takes a forthright person to speak so frankly on so touchy a subject, and you have to hand it to Father Ripley.

But suppose the statements had been made by a man who HAD a mother-in-law?

UNPUBLICIZED NEWS
Sunday 10,000 people filled Lafayette Park in Washington protesting persecution of Jews in Russia. This began a week-long rally sponsored by 24 Jewish organizations. Speakers charged repeatedly that the Soviet government is dedicated to destroying Russian Jewry, and solemnly pledged this would not be allowed to happen.

Prominent speakers charged that Russian Jews are discriminated against, have no opportunity to maintain their existence, and are deprived of human pride and self-respect under communism. One disclosed, "It is now a quarter of a century since any Jewish school has existed (in Russia) where a Jewish child might learn Jewish language, literature and history; and a generation of Soviet Jewish youth is confronted with a past that is a blank, a future that is empty. To force that great community to become a dead end in history is a moral crime, an historic tragedy, a gross violation of human rights."

The extent of anti-Semitism in Russia is underscored by the fact that in 1956 Russia had 457 Jewish synagogues; in 1965 only 60. Russian Jewish congregations comprise increasingly older people, with youth prodded into atheism by Communists.

It has been charged that the Kernes government was overthrown by Bolsheviks with the aid of Jews largely from the U. S., including Trotsky, arriving from Utica, N. Y., to become co-dictator with Lenin. Regardless of past mistakes, this inhuman treatment cannot be condoned nor permitted. Russian communists maintain, and some people outside Russia agree, that there is no anti-Semitism there, but facts disprove their claims.

It is strange that news of such a great demonstration for a commendable cause goes unnoticed by the communications media. HLH

F. B. I. Zeros In On Hoffa's Charges Gov't. Used Prostitutes to Seduce Jurors in Tampering Trial

Spartanburg, S. C.: --Mystery compounds as one hits the southern trial on the Hoffa saga. Over in Chattanooga, Tenn., the police have a statement from a prostitute. She charges she was offered $200-a-day as premium pay if she would take an oath she had sexual relations with jurors during the Hoffa jury -- tampering trial there.

The lady could have had the money daily in small bills for a long time. Angered by this suggestion of featherbedding, she walked in on the police. The FBI was notified. She now has sworn in an affidavit that the story is true--giving time, place, date and profferer.

The contents of that affidavit are top secret. When the racy details are revealed in the federal courts, they'll prove that truth can be stranger than all the soft-covered pulp trash now strewn around the land.

This is but one chapter in a saga which grows more Dostoyevskian and Gorki-ish every day. Sort of a "Notes from the Underground" and "The Lower Depths" thing.

Prostitutes abound in it -- all under the watchful eye of squads of FBI men and a top Justice Dept. Hoffa specialist named Charles N. Shaffer -- a slim, trim, brilliant 30-year-old New Yorker who braintrustered the successful government prosecution of Jim Hoffa in Chattanooga.

He and the "Bureau" are up against another 30-year-old by name of Charles "Chucky" O'Brien, bumpy, bodyguard, and virtually adopted son of Hoffa. O'Brien, out on $5,000 bail while he appeals a federal conviction on a lousing charge, has found some night ladies who are willing to testify they were gay companions of some Hoffa jurors.

O'Brien, who was sentenced on June 17, 1965, has been spending some of his free time seeking out the streetwalkers for a series of affidavits. These documents are dramatic. They show pictures of some Hoffa jurors going about their business. Their heads are encircled. Each is initiated by a night lady who then swears that he is the one she entertained in the hotel during the trial.

The objective is, of course, to insinuate it all was arranged by the Justice Dept. It does make spicy reading.

There even is a reflection on the impeccable Federal Judge Wilson, one of the nation's most respected jurists. It was he who presided over the Hoffa trial. At the trial's end, in March 1964, Judge Wilson looked down on Hoffa and said:

"You stand here convicted of having tampered, really with the very soul of this nation. You stand here convicted of having struck at the very foundation upon which everything else in this nation depends. . ."

For others, this story would have been the end, except for a routine appeal. But not for the president of the Teamsters.

He immediately called on most of his two dozen lawyers and launched one of the widest civilian investigations on record. Always at his side has been Chuckie O'Brien, who lives in Hoffa's Detroit home and who is a business agent of Hoffa's home local 299, Detroit.

Heavy money has been needed for all this. But it has been available. Just how much the Teamsters have paid for Hoffa's legal defense is in an undisclosed report now on the desk of Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz. Other money has come from the Hoffa Defense Fund. Whatever the total, its size must be appalling even to the $91,000-a-year (salary and expenses) Teamsters' chief.

His strategy is to gain time. First there is a move for a new trial in the Chattanooga Federal Court. This is denied. Then on to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati. This is denied. Then comes a bid for a rehearing. Suppose it's denied. Then the appeal goes to the Supreme Court.

That's just one round. Then comes a bid for a new trial on charges of government unfairness, or having planted a spy in his defense camp, or on presentation of new evidence, or further evidence of unfairness such as the use of prostitutes to influence jurors (all of whom have furiously denied the charges).

Each of these moves must go the full round. And there has not been a full decision yet on the first, though Hoffa was convicted and sentenced to eight years in March 1964.

It all will take years and years. And the national AFL-CIO leaders who met recently in New York and discussed getting the Teamsters Brotherhood back into the "mainstream" of American labor, after Hoffa goes to prison, had better relax. Apparently James Hoffa has just begun to fight.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON -- The need for patriotic young men to fight in Viet Nam has produced a rush, not to the recruiting centers but in the opposite direction.

Never have so many red-blooded American boys tried so many ruses to get out of serving their country.

Though no precise figures have been compiled, selective service officials suspect that draft dodging is worse now than at any time since the Civil War.

Not only are more men neglecting to register, ignoring official correspondence, refusing to report for their physicals, and tearing up their draft cards, but the threat of military service has scared thousands into premature marriages, unplanned schooling, and unwanted jobs.

Congressmen have been bombarding local boards with requests for deferments. Prominent people have brought pressure on the boards to exempt their sons. Employers have claimed that the most unlikely young workers are essential to the home front.

For men of draft age, 19 to 26, simply don't seem to understand the necessity for manning the frontiers of freedom half a world away. The Viet Nam war is either too remote or too abstruse to arouse their patriotism.

Those who ask what they can do for their country often seek the answer outside of the armed forces. Those who must put on a uniform are more pitted than praised.

FUTURE DRAFT CALLS
Yet the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps are demanding more men to keep South Viet Nam from falling to the Communists.

Next month, 33,600 new draftees will be pressed into service. The call probably will be increased in November and December. The first married men without children will be ordered to duty after Christmas.

Selective Service will continue to defer college students, though some attending part time or making poor grades may be inducted. Medical standards for draftees may also be lowered in the months ahead.

Yet only four out of ten militarily eligible youths are likely to be put into uniform, which means over half will escape service. This is bound to produce quixotic standards and cause injustices.

Selective Service operates somewhat like Russian roulette. As a young man stands on the threshold of his future, Uncle Sam hands him a revolver. Five chambers are marked "Deferred," the sixth is loaded with a draft call. He spins the cylinder and takes his chance.

HOW TO BEAT DRAFT
There are many ways to beat the draft; the ruses range from deliberately flunking tests to "instant" fatherhood. People with masters' degrees have miraculously failed their educational tests. And more than one illegitimate child has been given a name because his father sought to duck the draft.

A few desperate draft dodgers, felling the hot breath of the local board on their necks, have actually contrived to get arrested for minor crimes in order to be found morally unfit.

The most common grounds for exemption are physical or mental unfitness. Next are deferments for dependency. Then come school and job deferments.

Comparatively few youths take their chances on violating the Selective Service laws outright, but the number is increasing at an alarming rate. Worst problem: 18-year-olds who fail to register.

The local boards simply have no way of discovering that a boy has turned 18 and hasn't registered, unless someone turns him in.

It is risky, however, to pull a fast one on Uncle Sam. Those who try it usually get caught. They are subject to five years in prison, and a $10,000 fine.

But more often, their names are merely put at the head of

POOR CHARLIE SAYS!

REAGAN COMES EAST

The 1964 Goldwater campaign may have been the sinking of the conservative cause but it was the making of Ronald Reagan. His impassioned television appearance on behalf of Barry Goldwater not only unleashed a flood of grass-roots campaign contributions but lifted Reagan to political-candidate stature.

Now the handsome movie star is being boomed by G.O.P. conservatives as Republican candidate for Governor of California in 1966. A California poll published August 11 showed Reagan leading Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown, 46 per cent for Reagan to 41 per cent for Brown with 13 per cent undecided. U. S. Sen. Thomas H. Huchel (R) did 10 per cent better than Reagan in the poll, but he is reported unwilling to be a candidate for Governor.

Reagan is forever having to explain just how he feels about G. O. P. arch-conservatives. Right now he is embroiled in a controversy over his allegedly warm endorsement of and by John Roussetot, a national official of the John Birch Society. Reagan is reported to have told a private meeting of Republicans that Roussetot "has offered all of his help in my campaign. . . he said he would do anything from calling me names in public to endorsement--whatever we want."

The actor ran into unexpected hot water when he agreed to appear on Tuesday, Sept. 28, in New Haven, Conn., at a rally sponsored by the strongly conservative Connecticut Republican Citizens Committee. A. Searle Pinney, Connecticut's G. O. P. State Chairman, expressed "amazement" that Reagan would lend prestige to a group now not recognized by the Republican State Committee.

Reagan's audience is sure to be hanging on his every word. His political enemies doubtless hope his words will hang him, a la Barry Goldwater. It should be an occasion worth watching.

NEW-PRODUCT GAMBLE

Introduction of a new product is an exercise in industrial faith. The hope is that consumers will find the product to their taste and enrich the company and its stockholders. But the American consumer presents an erratic target, and four out of five new products fail to gain a market foothold.

These thoughts are occasioned by news that Polaroid Corporation will introduce a new camera in the American market late in September. The "Swinger" camera will retail for $19.95--about one-third the cost of the cheapest Polaroid previously available. Company officials say it requires no threading, winding, or focusing and uses Polaroid's high-speed black and white film ($1.99 for eight exposures) which will develop in 10 seconds.

If the new camera is a sales success, it will serve as further evidence that technological innovation brings large rewards to the economy. When consumers pay less than before for approximately the same goods and services, the cost of living is lowered. By finding new ways to lower cost or build in better quality with no increase in price, American industry has helped to stabilize the consumer price index. And it is prompting extensive consumer investments in manufactured goods.

UNION SHOP BAN REPEAL PERPETUATION OF ABUSES

By virtue of crafty vote-swapping and heavy-handed steamrollering, the Democrats in the U. S. House of Representatives have won a major victory for organized labor by voting the repeal of Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

But in taking from the states the right to prohibit union shop agreements the House has failed to provide even minimum safeguards against well-known union abuses which have sustained the right-to-work movement and cost organized labor much respect.

Rather than move the repealing amendment through the Rules Committee, the leadership elected to use the 21-day rule technique. This permits the bill to be brought to the floor for action quickly and under conditions satisfactory to the leadership. Although it could have done otherwise, the leadership wrote the 21-day rule resolution in such a way as to prevent important amendments, and limit debate to two hours. While it is true that the original Taft-Hartley Act was moved through the House of Representatives in 1947 by the GOP with even greater disregard for the minority, this does not in the least excuse this week's perversion of fair legislative behavior.

It is, we suppose, in the grand old tradition of legislative mores that farm state legislators personally opposed to repealing Section 14-B swapped their votes for a promise to pass a nice big farm subsidy bill later on.

Fortunately the Senate still must pass on this bill, which we oppose on the ground that the individual states should have a right to make their own decisions on such issues. And fortunately, steamrollers do not operate so smoothly in the Senate, where amendments can be proposed, debated and voted on almost without limit.

There are several proposals which deserve consideration. One would prohibit unions from discrimination against Negroes. Another would prevent spending union dues for purposes unconnected with collective bargaining such as political contributions. A third would prevent union bosses from penalizing members who challenge their decisions.

Still another would protect persons having religious convictions against joining unions from being forced to do so. Finally, the Senate should consider prohibitions against union apprenticeship and membership programs which create false labor shortages.

Big labor has shown no disposition to correct these abuses itself and before it is given a federal carte blanche to expand its union-shop dominion into 19 right-to-work states, it is logical to require corrective action.

At least in the Senate there will be a chance to bring these issues individually to a vote.

Sikeston dogs, which have let the Viet Cong conflict pass almost unnoticed, are concerned about the massing of troops in Sikkim. It sounds threatening to them.

Stay in there and fight Governor Warren. The people are with you even if Speaker Tom Graham and his cohorts are not.

Let's all run at large and then see what the people think of the present bunch of legislators.

THE "SILENT" DEEP

The ocean, once thought to be a silent world, is really as noisy as a barnyard in summer. The Magazine of Catholic Living finds. Hydrophones have picked up sounds of fish gnashing their teeth as they feed, and the vibrations of swim bladders of many species have been recorded as grunts, pops, hoots, and wails. Killer whales, say the scientists, make sounds that resemble Tarzan's victory cry, and the Pacific gray whale emits noises which sound like a pencil hitting an empty box.

Prominent speakers charged that Russian Jews are discriminated against, have no opportunity to maintain their existence, and are deprived of human pride and self-respect under communism. One disclosed, "It is now a quarter of a century since any Jewish school has existed (in Russia) where a Jewish child might learn Jewish language, literature and history; and a generation of Soviet Jewish youth is confronted with a past that is a blank, a future that is empty. To force that great community to become a dead end in history is a moral crime, an historic tragedy, a gross violation of human rights."

The extent of anti-Semitism in Russia is underscored by the fact that in 1956 Russia had 450 Jewish synagogues; in 1965 only 60, Russian Jewish congregations comprise increasingly older people, with youth prodded into atheism by Communists.

It has been charged that the Krensky government was overthrown by Bolsheviks with the aid of Jews largely from the U. S., including Trotsky, arriving from Utica, N. Y., to become co-dictator with Lenin.

Regardless of past mistakes, this inhuman treatment cannot be condoned nor permitted. Russian communists maintain, and some people outside Russia agree, that there is no anti-Semitism there, but facts disprove their claims.

It is strange that news of such a great demonstration for a commendable cause goes unnoticed by the communications media. HLH

F. B. I. Zeros In On Hoffa's Charges Gov't. Used Prostitutes to Seduce Jurors in Tampering Trial

Spartanburg, S. C.: --Mystery compounds as one hits the southern trial on Hoffa saga. Over in Chattanooga, Tenn., the police have a statement from a prostitute. She charges she was offered $200-a-day as premium pay if she would take an oath she had sexual relations with jurors during the Hoffa jury -- tampering trial there.

The lady could have had the money daily in small bills for a long time. Aggrieved by this suggestion of featherbedding, she walked in on the police. The FBI was notified. She now has sworn in an affidavit that the story is true--giving time, place, date and profferer.

The contents of that affidavit are top secret. When the racy details are revealed in the federal courts, they'll prove that truth can be stranger than all the soft-covered pulp trash now strewn around the land.

This is but one chapter in a saga which grows more Dostoyevskian and Gorki-ish every day. Sort of a "Notes from the Underground" and "The Lower Depths" thing.

Prostitutes abound in it -- all under the watchful eye of squads of FBI men and a top Justice Dept. Hoffa specialist named Charles N. Shaffer -- a slim, trim, brilliant 30-year-old New Yorker who braintrustered the successful government prosecution of Jim Hoffa in Chattanooga.

He and the "Bureau" are up against another 30-year-old by the name of Charles "Chuckie" O'Brien, buddy, bodyguard, and virtually adopted son of Hoffa. O'Brien, out on $5,000 bail while he appeals a federal conviction on a looting charge, has found some night ladies who are willing to testify they were gay companions of some Hoffa jurors.

O'Brien, who was sentenced on June 17, 1965, has been spending some of his free time seeking out the streetwalkers for a series of affidavits. These documents are dramatic. They show pictures of some Hoffa jurors going about their business. Their heads are encircled. Each is initiated by a night lady who then swears that he is the one she entertained in the hotel during the trial.

The objective is, of course, to insinuate it all was arranged by the Justice Dept. It does make spicy reading.

There even is a reflection on the impeccable Federal Judge Wilson, one of the nation's most respected jurists. It was he who presided over the Hoffa trial. At the trial's end, in March 1964, Judge Wilson looked down on Hoffa and said:

"You stand here convicted of having tampered, really with the very soul of this nation. You stand here convicted of having struck at the very foundation upon which everything else in this nation depends. . . ."

For others, this would have been the end, except for a routine appeal. But not for the president of the Teamsters. He immediately called on most of his two dozen lawyers and launched one of the widest civilian investigations on record. Always at his side has been Chuckie O'Brien, who lives in Hoffa's Detroit home and who is a business agent of Hoffa's home local 299, Detroit.

Heavy money has been needed for all this. But it has been available. Just how much the Teamsters have paid for Hoffa's legal defense is in an undiscovered report now on the desk of Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz. Other money has come from the Hoffa Defense Fund. Whatever the total, its size must be appalling even to the $91,000-a-year (salary and expenses) Teamsters' chief.

His strategy is to gain time. First there is a move for a new trial in the Chattanooga Federal Court. This is denied. Then on to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati. This is denied. Then comes a bid for a rehearing. Suppose it's denied. Then the appeal goes to the Supreme Court.

That's just one round. Then comes a bid for a new trial on charges of government unfairness, or having planted a spy in his defense camp, or on presentation of new evidence, or further evidence of unfairness such as the use of prostitutes to influence jurors (all of whom have furiously denied the charges).

Each of these moves must go the full round. And there has not been a full decision yet on the first, though Hoffa was convicted and sentenced to eight years in March 1964.

It all will take years and years. And the national AFL-CIO leaders who met recently in New York and discussed getting the Teamsters Brotherhood back into the "mainstream" of American labor, after Hoffa goes to prison, had better relax. Apparently James Hoffa has just begun to fight.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON -- The need for patriotic young men to fight in Viet Nam has produced a rush, not in the recruiting centers, but in the opposite direction. Never have so many red-blooded American boys tried so many ruses to get out of serving their country.

Though no precise figures have been compiled, selective service officials suspect that draft dodging is worse now than at any time since the Civil War.

Not only are more men neglecting to register, ignoring official correspondence, refusing to report for their physicals, and tearing up their draft cards, but the threat of military service has scared thousands into premature marriages, unplanned schooling, and unwanted jobs.

Congressmen have been bombarding local boards with requests for deferments. Prominent people have brought pressure on the boards to exempt their sons. Employers have claimed that the most unlikely young workers are essential to the home front.

For men of draft age, 19 to 26, simply don't seem to understand the necessity for manning the frontiers of freedom half a world away. The Viet Nam war is either too remote or too abstruse to arouse their patriotism.

Those who ask what they can do for their country often seek the answer outside of the armed forces. Those who must put on a uniform are more pitted than praised.

FUTURE DRAFT CALLS Yet the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps are demanding more men to keep South Viet Nam from falling to the Communists.

Next month, 33,600 new draftees will be pressed into service. The call probably will be increased in November and December. The first married men without children will be ordered to duty after Christmas.

Selective Service will continue to defer college students, though some attending part time or making poor grades may be inducted. Medical standards for draftees may also be lowered in the months ahead.

Yet only four out of ten militarily eligible youths are likely to be put into uniform, which means over half will escape service. This is bound to produce quixotic standards and cause injustices.

Selective Service operates somewhat like Russian roulette. As a young man stands on the threshold of his future, Uncle Sam hands him a revolver. Five chambers are marked "Deferred," the sixth is loaded with a draft call. He spins the cylinder and takes his chance.

HOW TO BEAT DRAFT There are many ways to beat the draft; the ruses range from deliberately flunking tests to "instant" fatherhood. People with masters' degrees have miraculously failed their educational tests. And more than one illegitimate child has been given a name because his father sought to duck the draft.

A few desperate draft dodgers, felling the hot breath of the local board on their necks, have actually contrived to get arrested for minor crimes in order to be found morally unfit.

The most common grounds for exemption are physical or mental unfitness. Next are deferments for dependency. Then come school and job deferments.

Comparatively few youths take their chances on violating the Selective Service laws outright, but the number is increasing at an alarming rate. Worst problem: 18-year-olds who fail to register.

The local boards simply have no way of discovering that a boy has turned 18 and hasn't registered, unless someone turns him in.

It is risky, however, to pull a fast one on Uncle Sam. Those who try it usually get caught. They are subject to five years in prison, and a $10,000 fine. But more often, their names are merely put at the head of the list, and they are the first to be hustled off to boot camp. Meanwhile, the inequities in our selective service system and the failure to convince young people of their patriotic duty are creating a generation of draft dodgers.

WASHINGTON HOT LINE

Despite the public outcry over the lavish spending on the Sam Rayburn Building, House leaders have ordered a complete overhaul of the Clarence Cannon Building, oldest of the three House office buildings, beginning in November. They secretly plan to make the most luxurious quarters of all. . . .

Almost certainly, this will reverse the great exodus of senior congressmen, who were lured from their old offices by the glitter of the Rayburn Building. Like prodigal sons, they are expected to return after the renovations and to exercise their seniority to get their old offices back. This game of "musical offices," switching back and forth, will cost the taxpayers a small fortune apart from the elaborate and expensive renovations. . . . Sen. Phil Hart, D-Mich., will introduce legislation today (Monday) to prevent doctors from peddling drugs, eyeglasses and other medical products on the side. He will point out that doctors who fill their own prescriptions may be tempted to think more of the profits than of their patients. Hart will also blast the American Medical Association for failing to police its own profession. . . . The Army has swept under the secrecy label a great train scandal. Spurning competitive bids, the Army purchased 10 Plymouth locomotives for use in Thailand. These developed so much trouble that only one could ever be put in service. So the Army simply scrapped the 10 Plymouth engines and ordered 10 General Electric locomotives, again not bothering to seek the lowest bidder. Upon inquiry, this column was told the whole deal was a deep, dark military secret.

Study Skin Care Routine

The young man who said, "I like to see a woman's skin glow," was a spokesman without portfolio for his less articulate buddies. However, how many young women will take a cue from his comment? Will you?

Clean skin does have a charm all its own. And clean skin also means a greater possibility of clear skin. City grime or country dust mixed with heavy make-up that isn't properly removed each day block the oil glands. When this happens, there is bound to be trouble. Blackheads, for example, or other irritations.

Research by dermatologists continues to reveal proper care if not a cure of such skin aggravations as acne. Women off to college will want their complexions in sparkling shape. Before classes begin this fall, start a complexion routine, one you can follow despite your busy campus schedule. You'll find it rewarding to see soft, supple and clear skin peering back from your mirror each morning.

In addition to daily skin care, try to avoid the helterskelter campus diet. This is

For your complexion care select one of the hypo-allergenic soaps that also contain a moisturizer. Beauty specialists (working with Savon Clair) point out, though, that washing your face and throat properly is also half the battle. They suggest:

- Splash your face and throat with warm water. Don't shock your skin with water that is too hot or too cold.
- Gently apply rich lather with a clean sponge or wash cloth and massage entire face area with upward and outward rotating motions.
- Massage at the base of your throat with upward sweeping motions. This massage, most overlooked in home facials, helps keep your throat firm, smooth and youthful looking.
- Rinse with warm water and gradually change from warm to cool.
- Pat face and throat dry but don't rub.

Hot Potato Salad Teams With Two Types of Bacon

One of the most popular of potato salads is a heated variety which uses cooked pieces of bacon and a dressing that just coats the potato slices. It's even more delicious when it's paired with panfried Canadian-style bacon slices.

These two kinds of bacon are quite different in both flavor and appearance. Regular style bacon has some lean interspersed with flavorful fat that becomes crisp on frying, advises meat authority Reba Staggs. Canadian-style bacon is actually the boneless loin of pork cured and smoked. It has a high percentage of lean with very little fat.

Serve this salad with Canadian-style bacon as the main en-

Study Skin Care Routine

by Helen Hennessy
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The young man who said, "I like to see a woman's skin glow," was a spokesman without portfolio for his less articulate buddies. However, how many young women will take a cue from his comment? Will you?

Clean skin does have a charm all its own. And clean skin also means a greater possibility of clear skin. City grime or country dust mixed with heavy make-up that isn't properly removed each day block the oil glands. When this happens, there is bound to be trouble. Blackheads, for example, or other irritations.

Research by dermatologists continues to reveal proper care if not a cure of such skin aggravations as acne. Women off to college will want their complexions in sparkling shape. Before classes begin this fall, start a complexion routine, one you can follow despite your busy campus schedule. You'll find it rewarding to see soft, supple and clear skin peering back from your mirror each morning.

In addition to daily skin care, try to avoid the helterskelter campus diet. This is

Hot Potato Salad Teams With Two Types of Bacon

One of the most popular of potato salads is a heated variety which uses cooked pieces of bacon and a dressing that just coats the potato slices. It's even more delicious when it's paired with panfried Canadian-style bacon slices.

These two kinds of bacon are quite different in both flavor and appearance. Regular style bacon has some lean interspersed with flavorful fat that becomes crisp on frying. Advise meat authority Reba Stagg: Canadian-style bacon is actually the boneless loin of pork cured and smoked. It has a high percentage of lean with very little fat.

Serve this salad with Canadian-style bacon as the main entree for a quick supper. Round out the menu with raw vegetable relishes and spiced fruits and an ice cream dessert.

German Potato Salad with Canadian-Style Bacon
5 slices bacon, diced
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 tablespoon flour
3/4 cup water
1/2 cup vinegar
1 tablespoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
4 cups sliced cooked potatoes
8 slices Canadian-style bacon, cut 1/2 inch thick
1 tablespoon lard or drippings

Cook diced bacon and onion until bacon is crisp and onions are lightly browned. Add flour and stir until blended. Combine water, vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper. Gradually add to bacon-onion mixture. Add potatoes and mix thoroughly, cover tightly and cook slowly 20 minutes. Cook Canadian-style bacon in lard or drippings until lightly browned on both sides. Serve potato salad mounded in center of platter, edged with Canadian-style bacon. 6 to 8 servings.

Bulldog Passing And Rushing Excellent

By Don Voelker
Standard Sports Editor

The Sikeston Bulldogs were upset by the Charleston Blue Jays last Friday night 6-0. Every time the Bulldogs got close to winning the referee would throw the red flag into the air and charge Sikeston with a 5 to 15 yard penalty. Sikeston did come close to scoring four times in a row but the Blue Jays would not give past their five yard line. The last time the Blue Jays beat the Bulldogs was in 1947. The Bulldogs should be allowed to be defeated once every 17 years. Sikeston Bulldog Quarter Back Ron Spears hit all of Sikeston's 9 out of 18 attempted passes. The Bulldogs had 42 rushing plays for a total of 190 yards rushing. The Charleston Blue Jays hit two out of 4 passes for a total of 38 yards passing. Sam Keasler punted 2 times for 46 total yardage and Terry Scudder gained 92 yards running. John Gallagher caught eight of the nine successful passes for 60 yards. The Charleston Blue Jays may beat the Bulldogs again in 1982. Last Friday night was only an upset.

Cairo Over Zeigler

CAIRO--Cairo blanked Zeigler 31-0 last Friday night at Cairo. Cairo's Jerry Zimmer passed for 3 touchdowns and ran another. Zimmer hit five out of 7 attempted passes for a total of 155 yards passing. Zeigler ran 86 yards rushing and 24 yards passing. Zeigler fumbled 4 times as did Cairo. Cairo was charged with 25 yards penalties as was Zeigler. Cairo had 11 first and tens and Zeigler had 4 first and tens. The quarter by quarter scores were:

	1	2	3	4	total
Cairo	6	13	12	0	31

Roosevelt Over Cape Central

CAPE CENTRAL -- The Central High Tigers lost to Roosevelt High of St. Louis, 12-0. Cape Central had 17 yards rushing and 33 yards passing. The Tigers completed 4 out of 11 passes and racked up 14 first and tens. They fumbled five times but recovered four of them. Central kicked off once for 50 yards and had 4 penalties for a total of 5 yards. Roosevelt High had 191 yards rushing and 1 yard passing. Roosevelt completed one pass out of one, and intercepted 2. They had 12 first and tens and no fumbles. The St. Louis team punted 4 times for 105 yards. They had five penalties for 55 yards.

Bulldogs Have "B" Game With Jays

Sikeston is to have "B" game with Charleston at 7:00 a.m. in Charleston tonight. The time of the Charleston-Perryville game has been changed to 8:00 p.m. Central Standard Time.

Jade is not always green. Its chief colors are white and green, but many other colors are found.

Cards Thrash Missouri Over Cleveland Oklahoma

CLEVELAND AP -- The St. Louis football Cardinals followed a simple formula in thrashing the Cleveland Browns 49-13 Sunday. Just catch everything that goes into the air -- no matter who throws it. St. Louis receivers snared six of Charley Johnson's tosses for touchdowns and the St. Louis defensive secondary latched on to six Cleveland passes, too, putting an end to most offensive thoughts the Browns had. "It was just one of those days," Coach Walley Lemm of the Cardinals said. "Everything went right for us and everything went wrong for the Browns."

Most of the "right" can be attributed to Johnson. He and Willis Crenshaw teamed on a 78-yard scoring play, but when the Browns took a 10-7 lead, the St. Louis quarterback really went to work. The Cardinals scored four touchdowns in nine minutes of the second period. Abe Woodson set up the first with a 65-yard runback of a kickoff and Johnson threw a 32-yard payoff pitch to Sonny Randle. Bill Triplett ran four yards and Randle for seven and a 35-10 halftime lead. A 72-yard heave to Randle set up a scoring toss of three yards to Billy Gambrell in the third period and Johnson closed his day with a 56-yard touchdown strike to Randle. In all, Johnson riddle Cleveland's defense 11 times in 19 attempts for 310 yards. "I never had this feeling before," Johnson said, "but I really felt that I could throw long against them today."

Cardinals Out Of Race

The Kansas City Athletics closed their home baseball season on a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox, and the St. Louis Cardinals, out of the National League race, still figured in its finish Sunday. St. Louis lost to Los Angeles, 1-0, moving the Dodgers into a first place tie with the San Francisco Giants, losers Sunday to the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2. The Dodgers have swept two consecutive three-game sets from the Cardinals in a week. Four of the victories were shutouts, and the Cards haven't scored a run off Dodger pitching in 21 innings. Don Drysdale was the Los Angeles winner Sunday, and the winning Dodger run was unearned off loser Ray Sadecki. Maury Wills beat out a bunt in the first, stole second and went on to third when Bill White threw the ball away. Jim Gilliam then singled Wills in. Drysdale, who is 4-0 against the Cardinals this season, did not walk a man and struck out four, bringing his total standouts to 202 this season. The Cardinals open a three-game series today in San Francisco, and still could have a hand in deciding their successors to the National League championship. Tracy Stallard 11-7 is slated to go against Warren Spahn 7-16 of the Giants. The A's will have Fred Talbot 10-11 pitching at Baltimore tonight against the Orioles, who have designated John Miller 6-4.

Giants In Final Week Of National League

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal can't win. Don Drysdale can't do anything else. And so the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers go into the final week of the National League season all even. While Milwaukee was handing Marichal his third straight loss Sunday, 3-2, Drysdale won his fourth in a row and pitched the Dodgers to their ninth consecutive victory, 1-0 over St. Louis. Drysdale fired a five-hitter at the Cardinals and made a first-inning run -- produced on Maury Wills' base-running and Jim Gilliam's single -- stand up, now 22-12, has accounted for one-third of the nine victories in the Dodgers' streak, which has lifted them from 4 1/2 games back into a tie for first.

At San Francisco, Gene Oliver's bases-empty homer in the sixth inning gave the Braves a 3-0 lead and proved the clincher against Marichal, who's lost 13 and won 22.

The Giants, who zoomed to the top with a 14-game winning string, have dropped five of nine since -- with Marichal losing three of them.

Each front-runner has seven games left -- all at home -- before the regular season closes next Sunday. The Giants open a three-game set against St. Louis today, then concluded with a four-game series against Cincinnati's third-place Reds. Los Angeles starts a three-game series against Cincinnati tonight, then plays four against Milwaukee.

The eventual winner of the NL scramble will face the Minnesota Twins in the World Series. Minnesota clinched its first American League pennant Sunday with a 2-1 decision over Washington.

In other NL action -- Houston kept Cincinnati three games behind, trimming the Reds 4-2 on rookie Chuck Harrison's three-run homer with one out in the last of the ninth; Pittsburgh overcame the Chicago Cubs 5-3 on run-scoring doubles by Willie Stargell and Jim Pagliaroni in the 10th inning; and Tony Gonzalez, double in the 10th gave Philadelphia a 5-4 victory over the New York Mets. Elsewhere in the American League -- Baltimore nipped California 2-1, the Chicago White Sox downed the New York Yankees 5-3, Kansas City edged Boston 2-1, and Detroit split with Cleveland, the Tigers taking the first game 2-0 and the Indians the second 7-1.

Wills led off the Dodgers' first against Ray Sadecki with a bunt single. When the St. Louis left-hander attempted a pickoff, Wills stole second, and continued to third when Bill White's throw to second was wild. Gilliam followed with his single and it was 1-0.

It still was 1-0 after Dick Groat fled to Lou Johnson for the final out. Drysdale, making his record 4-0 against the Cards this year, did not walk a man and allowed only three runners as far as second.

Singles by Frank Bolling in the second and Mack Jones in the third drove in Milwaukee runs against Marichal, then Oliver homered in the sixth. Willie McCovey tagged his 39th homer, off winner Hank Fischer in the bottom of the sixth, and the Giants got another run in the seventh. But relievers Phil Niekro, Denny Lemaster and Dan Osinski stopped them after that.

Twins Clinch Pennant

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The phone jangled persistently in the Minnesota Twins dressing room under D. C. Stadium. "Get that, I'm busy," yelled a champagne-soaked Sam Mele. "It's the vice president," said an aide.

So Mele went to the phone and accepted congratulations from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey after the Twins had clinched their first American League pennant by edging Washington 2-1 Sunday for their 99th victory of the season.

"By gosh, it's great, Sam," said Humphrey, a former senator from Minnesota. "You've done a great job. Give my best wishes to all the players. I couldn't be happier."

Neither could the Twins. Ironically the Twins wrapped up the pennant in Washington, the city they left after the 1960 season for the Midwest.

And Zoilo Versalles, the sparkling shortstop making a strong bid for Most Valuable Player honors, was the key as the Twins put it out of reach of their last challengers, the Baltimore Orioles.

Versalles tripled in the sixth inning and promptly scored on a passed ball by catcher Don Zimmer. Then, in the eighth, with the score tied 1-1, Frank Guitell doubled, took third on a wild pitch by Pete Richert and scored when Versalles drove a long fly to center field. Some 15 minutes later Mele was being sprayed with champagne while talking about the World Series. "I don't care who we face, we're ready for them," he said. "We've got pitching for them. We've got the ball club for them."

Then he ticked off his first three pitchers for the Series: Jim Grant, who became a 20-game winner Saturday, Camilo Pascual and Jim Kaat, who had the honor of pitching the pennant-clincher.

Kaat, bringing his record to 17-11, surrendered a run in the third inning on singles by Ken McMullen and Frank Howard and his own error, then shut the door the rest of the way. He seemed to get stronger as the game progressed, finishing with a flourish by striking out the last two men he faced, Dick Nen and Zimmer.

At Baltimore, the Twins' score was posted on the scoreboard, letting the Orioles know they had been eliminated. But they rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning and edged California 2-1 for the seventh straight victory.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Chicago White Sox defeated the New York Yankees 5-3, Kansas City edged Boston 2-1 and Cleveland and Detroit split, the Tigers winning the opener 2-0 and the Indians taking the nightcap 7-1.

In the National League, Los Angeles blanked St. Louis 1-0 and moved into a tie for first place with the San Francisco Giants, who lost to Milwaukee 3-2. Houston whipped Cincinnati

4-2, Philadelphia edged the New York Mets 5-4 in 10 innings and Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-3 in 10 innings. George Brunet of the Angels and Dave McNally of the Orioles each had three-hit shutouts through seven innings, then California broke through for a run in the eighth on singles by Rick Reichardt and Paul Schaal and a sacrifice by Jimmy Piersall. But the Orioles won it in the ninth against reliever Bob Lee on a walk and singles by Curt Blefary, Jerry Adair and Dick Brown.

Sikeston did come close to scoring four times in a row but the Blue Jays would not give past their five yard line. The last time the Blue Jays beat the Bulldogs was in 1947. The Bulldogs should be allowed to be defeated once every 17 years. Sikeston Bulldog Quarter Back Ron Spears hit all of Sikeston's 9 out of 18 attempted passes. The Bulldogs had 42 running plays for a total of 190 yards rushing. The Charleston Blue Jays hit two out of 4 passes for a total of 38 yards passing. Sam Keasler punted 2 times for 46 total yardage and Terry Scudder gained 92 yards running. John Gallagher caught eight of the nine successful passes for 60 yards.

The Charleston Blue Jays may beat the Bulldogs again in 1982. Last Friday night was only an upset.

Cards Thrash Missouri Over Cleveland

CLEVELAND AP -- The St. Louis Cardinals followed a simple formula in thrashing the Cleveland Browns 49-13 Sunday. Just catch everything that goes into the air -- no matter who throws it.

St. Louis receivers snared six of Charley Johnson's tosses for touchdowns and the St. Louis defensive secondary latched on to six Cleveland passes, too, putting an end to most offensive thoughts the Browns had.

"It was just one of those days," Coach Wally Lemm of the Cardinals said. "Everything went right for us and everything went wrong for the Browns."

Most of the "right" can be attributed to Johnson. He and Willis Crenshaw teamed on a 78-yard scoring play, but when the Browns took a 10-lead, the St. Louis quarterback really went to work.

The Cardinals scored four touchdowns in nine minutes of the second period. Abe Woodson set up the first with a 65-yard runback of a kickoff and Johnson threw a 32-yard payoff pitch to Sonny Randle.

Bill Triplett run four yards and Randle for seven and a 35-10 halftime lead.

A 72-yard heave to Randle set up a scoring toss of three yards to Billy Gambrell in the third period and Johnson closed his day with a 56-yard touchdown strike to Randle.

In all, Johnson riddle Cleveland's defense 11 times in 1947 attempts for 310 yards.

"I never had this feeling before," Johnson said, "but I really felt that I could throw long against them today."

The Cardinals evened their record at 101 going into their home opener next Monday night against league-leading Dallas, 2-0.

Cardinals Out Of Race

The Kansas City Athletics closed their home baseball season on a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox, and the St. Louis Cardinals, out of the National League race, still figured in its finish Sunday.

St. Louis lost to Los Angeles, 1-0, moving the Dodgers into a first place tie with the San Francisco Giants, losers Sunday to the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2.

The Dodgers have swept two consecutive three-game sets from the Cardinals in a week. Four of the victories were shutouts, and the Cards haven't scored a run off Dodger pitching in 21 innings.

Don Drysdale was the Los Angeles winner Sunday, and the winning Dodger run was unearned off loser Ray Sadecki. Maury Wills beat out a bunt in the first, stole second and went on to third when Bill White threw the ball away. Jim Gilliam then singled Wills in.

Drysdale, who is 4-0 against the Cardinals this season, did not walk a man and struck out four, bringing his total standouts to 202 this season.

The Cardinals open a three-game series today in San Francisco, and still could have a hand in deciding their successors to the National League championship. Tracy Stallard 11-7 is slated to go against Warren Spahn 7-16 of the Giants.

The A's will have Fred Talbot 10-11 pitching at Baltimore tonight against the Orioles, who have designated John Miller 6-4.

Missouri Over Oklahoma

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nebraska's defending Big Eight football champions open their league schedule against improved Iowa State At Lincoln Saturday while Colorado, elevated now to the role of No. 1 dark horse, plays at Kansas State.

Missouri got an early jump in the title race with a convincing 13-0 victory at Oklahoma State last weekend while the rest of the league fell below expectations with a 3-3 split against outside teams.

This gave the Big Eight a 5-7-2 season record against outside teams going into this Saturday's tough four-game card which finds Kansas at California, Missouri at Minnesota, Navy at Oklahoma and Tulsa at Oklahoma State.

Missouri's tight defense permitted OSU into Tiger territory only twice and the Tigers rushed for 239 yards. Quarterback Gary Lane, who had a bad day in OSU's 10-7 victory over Missouri last year, ran 80 yards for the only touchdown and hit 7 of 12 passes for 94 yards. Halfback Charlie Brown gained 109 yards. Bill Bates kicked two field goals.

Nebraska jumped to a 21-0 first quarter lead, watched Air Force pull within four points then pulled itself together to win 27-17 at Air Force. Frank Solich, 158-pound Husker back, ran 80, 41 and 21 yards for touchdowns.

Colorado had unexpected trouble getting past Fresno State 10-7 at Boulder on a 31-yard field goal by Frank Rogers and 31-yard touchdown dash by Bill Harris.

Iowa State handed Pacific two early touchdowns at Ames before coming back to win 38-13 on Tim Van Galder's passing and Willie Robinson's running.

A combination of Kansas errors and alert, tough Arizona defensive play gave Arizona 16 points for a 23-15 victory at Lawrence. Slim Stokes of Kansas tied a Big Eight record by catching nine passes and the Jayhawks held a 297-151 bulge in offensive yardage, but quarterback Bob Skahan re-injured his leg and will be out indefinitely.

Oklahoma held a 323 to 241 edge in yardage at Pittsburgh but went down 13-9 as Pitt quarterback Kenny Lucas threw three scoring strikes. Four interceptions hurt OU. K-State lost a 21-3 Friday night game at Brigham Young as it gave BYU two fumbles and an interception near the K-State goal.

Kansas coach Jack Mitchell was encouraged by the spirited play of his defensive unit, which permitted Arizona only one sustained drive-that in the first period.

"If we've got a defense," he said, "then we can do something. If we play like we did that last half, we're gonna beat somebody."

"Our whole season comes back to Skahan's availability," Mitchell said. "He may not play a down this Saturday and this may be a chronic thing. Bill Fenton isn't tall enough to be a drop-back passer and he isn't fast enough to get outside, even when they give us the run."

Doug Weaver, K-State coach, said "our defense was heroic in trying to keep us in the game. They did a great job but they have to play too much."

Giants In Final Week Of National League

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal can't win. Don Drysdale can't do anything else.

And so the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers go into the final week of the National League season all even.

While Milwaukee was handing Marichal his third straight loss Sunday, 3-2, Drysdale won his fourth in a row and pitched the Dodgers to their ninth consecutive victory, 1-0 over St. Louis.

Drysdale fired a five-hitter at the Cardinals and made a first-inning run -- produced on Maury Wills' base-running and Jim Gilliam's single -- stand up, now 22-15, has accounted for one-third of the nine victories in the Dodgers' streak, which has lifted them from 4 1/2 games back into a tie for first.

At San Francisco, Gene Oliver's bases-empty homer in the sixth inning gave the Braves a 3-0 lead and proved the clincher against Marichal, who's lost 13 and won 22.

The Giants, who zoomed to the top with a 14-game winning string, have dropped five of nine since -- with Marichal losing three of them.

Each front-runner has seven games left -- all at home -- before the regular season closes next Sunday. The Giants open a three-game set against St. Louis today, then concluded with a four-game series against Cincinnati's third-place Reds. Los Angeles starts a three-game series against Cincinnati tonight, then plays four against Milwaukee.

The eventual winner of the NL scramble will face the Minnesota Twins in the World Series. Minnesota clinched its first American League pennant Sunday with a 2-1 decision over Washington.

In other NL action -- Houston kept Cincinnati three games behind, trimming the Reds 4-2 on rookie Chuck Harrison's three-run homer with one out in the last of the ninth; Pittsburgh overcame the Chicago Cubs 5-3 on run-scoring doubles by Willie Stargell and Jim Pagliaroni in the 10th inning; and Tony Gonzalez doubled in the 10th gave Philadelphia a 5-4 victory over the New York Mets.

Elsewhere in the American League -- Baltimore nipped California 2-1, the Chicago White Sox downed the New York Yankees 5-3, Kansas City edged Boston 2-1, and Detroit split with Cleveland, the Tigers taking the first game 2-0 and the Indians the second 7-1.

Wills led off the Dodgers' first against Ray Sadecki with a bunt single. When the St. Louis left-hander attempted a pickoff, Wills stole second, and continued to third when Bill White's throw to second was wild. Gilliam followed with his single and it was 1-0.

It still was 1-0 after Dick Groat flied to Lou Johnson for the final out. Drysdale, making his record 4-0 against the Cards this year, did not walk a man and allowed only three runners as far as second.

Singles by Frank Bolling in the second and Mack Jones in the third drove in Milwaukee runs against Marichal, then Oliver homered in the sixth.

Willie McCovey tagged his 39th homer, off winner Hank Fischer in the bottom of the sixth, and the Giants got another run in the seventh. But relievers Phil Niekro, Denny Lemaster and Dan Osinski stopped them after that.

Twins Clinch Pennant

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The phone jangled persistently in the Minnesota Twins dressing room under D. C. Stadium.

"Get that, I'm busy," yelled a champagne-soaked Sam Mele. "It's the vice president," said an aide."

So Mele went to the phone and accepted congratulations from Vice President Hubert Humphrey after the Twins had clinched their first American League pennant by edging Washington 2-1 Sunday for their 99th victory of the season.

"By gosh, it's great, Sam," said Humphrey, a former senator from Minnesota. "You've done a great job. Give my best wishes to all the players. I couldn't be happier."

Neither could the Twins. Ironically the Twins wrapped up the pennant in Washington, the city they left after the 1960 season for the Midwest.

And Zoilo Versalles, the sparkplug shortstop making a strong bid for Most Valuable Player honors, was the key as the Twins put it out of reach of their last challengers, the Baltimore Orioles.

Versalles tripled in the sixth inning and promptly scored on a passed ball by catcher Don Zimmer. Then, in the eighth, with the score tied 1-1, Frank Cullied doubled, took third on a wild pitch by Pete Richert and scored when Versalles drove a long fly to center field.

Some 15 minutes later Mele was being sprayed with champagne while talking about the World Series.

"I don't care who we face, we're ready for them," he said. "We've got pitching for them. We've got the ball club for them."

Then he ticked off his first three pitchers for the Series-- Jim Grant, who became a 20-game winner Saturday, Camilo Pascual and Jim Kaat, who had the honor of pitching the pennant-clincher.

Kaat, bringing his record to 17-11, surrendered a run in the third inning on singles by Ken McMullen and Frank Howard and his own error, then shut the door the rest of the way. He seemed to get stronger as the game progressed, finishing with a flourish by striking out the last two men he faced, Dick Nen and Zimmer.

At Baltimore, the Twins' score was posted on the scoreboard, letting the Orioles know they had been eliminated. But they rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning and edged California 2-1 for the seventh straight victory.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Chicago White Sox defeated the New York Yankees 5-3, Kansas City edged Boston 2-1 and Cleveland and Detroit split, the Tigers winning the opener 2-0 and the Indians taking the nightcap 7-1.

In the National League, Los Angeles blanked St. Louis 1-0 and moved into a tie for first place with the San Francisco Giants, who lost to Milwaukee 3-2. Houston whipped Cincinnati

4-2. Philadelphia edged the New York Mets 5-4 in 10 innings and Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-3 in 10 innings.

George Brunet of the Angels and Dave McNally of the Orioles each had three-hit shutouts through seven innings, then California broke through for a run in the eighth on singles by Rick Reichardt and Paul Schaal and a sacrifice by Jimmy Piersall. But the Orioles won it in the ninth against reliever Bob Lee on a walk and singles by Curt Blefary, Jerry Adair and Dick Brown.

GOVERNMENT

Principal problem areas for the three week-old regime headed by Dr. Hector Garcia-Godoy. The return Saturday of deposed ex-President Juan Bosch was considered an aggravating factor in the already tense political climate. On his arrival, Bosch exhorted the Dominicans to forceful action, including strikes, to force foreign troops out of the country.

President Garcia-Godoy was expected to address the nation tonight.

To become finalists, the students must substantiate their qualifying test performance in a second examination, submit recommendations from their schools, and fulfill other routine requirements.

In the past, about 50 per cent of the semi-finalists have become finalists.

To increase their opportunities for financial assistance if they need it, NMSC sends the names of semi-finalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and sources of financial aid. Studies show that about half of the semi-finalists in former years have obtained financial aid from sources other than the Merit program.

Each finalist receives a certificate of merit in recognition of his outstanding performance in the program. Finalists are eligible for scholarships sponsored by NMSC and over 280 corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations and individuals.

Names of the Merit Scholars chosen from among the finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966. The exact number will depend on the extent of sponsor support. In 1956, over 2,000 Merit Scholarships were awarded.

High school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities and school citizenship of the students are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholars. Winners of sponsored awards also meet sponsor criteria.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award covering the undergraduate college years. The winner's stipend is tailored to his need, up to a maximum of $6,000 for the four years in most cases. For the student already financially able to attend the college of his choice, the award is $400 for the four years. Winners choose their own colleges and courses of study.

In many cases, the colleges attended by Merit Scholars also receive supplementary grants accompanying the scholarships. More than 11,000 students won Merit Scholarships in the first decade of the program, which was founded in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. About $42 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expended or committed through the program thus far.

Robert's activities at Charleston high school have included debate, band, science club, boys' glee club and the junior play.

ided 17,000 newspapers workers and suspended circulation of 4.4 million newspapers daily. The Herald Tribune had planned to increase its normal weekday circulation of 307,000 today, but a spokesman for the newspaper said wholesale distributors had canceled orders for extra papers.

Executive Vice President Robert MacDonald said the wholesalers had telephoned "one by one" to stop the increased orders. He said they gave "the business interests" as the reason for the cancellations.

The Newspaper and Mail Deliverers Union protested the wholesalers' action.

After the Guild struck the Times the Mailers Union announced it would not return to work even if the Guild and Times reached a settlement until it had a contract of its own. The labor contracts expired March 31 but the unions have been working since then without a contract.

Today in U. S. History

Today is Monday, Sept. 27, the 270th day of 1965. There are 95 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1854, the first great disaster to an Atlantic liner occurred when the steamship "Arctic"—traveling from Liverpool to New York, sank with 300 persons aboard.

On this date: In 1777, Gen. Sir William Howe completed the British occupation of Philadelphia after eluding George Washington's colonial army without a battle; Washington had to face the winter at Valley Forge.

In 1779, John Adams was appointed to negotiate a peace treaty with Great Britain.

In 1894, President Grover Cleveland proclaimed amnesty for persons convicted of polygamy.

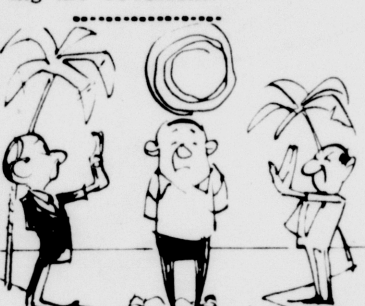

In 1937, Adolf Hitler conferred with Benito Mussolini.

In 1933, the Polish capital city of Warsaw surrendered.

Ten years ago — President Nasser of Egypt announced that he had signed a "commercial agreement" with Czechoslovakia to exchange Egyptian cotton for military arms.

Five years ago — The nation buzzed with discussion after viewing the first of the Kennedy-Nixon television debates.

One year ago — The report of the Warren Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy was published — and it found that Lee Harvey Oswald had acted on his own in shooting the President.

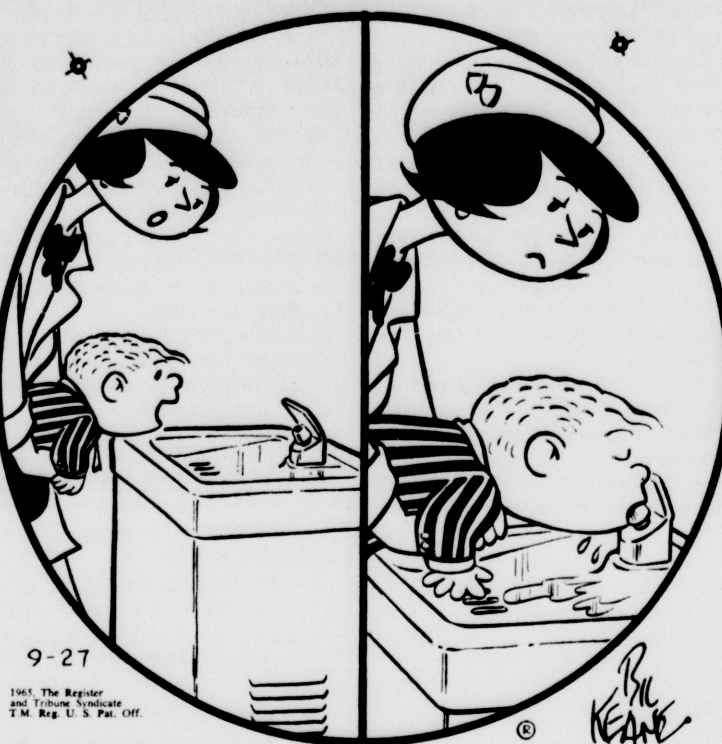

One can be a man without a country without even trying. If a person were born in a country which did not recognize the right of citizenship based on place of birth, and his parents came from another country which did not recognize citizenship based on blood relationship, he would be stateless.

THE FAMILY CIRCUS By Bil Keane

Today in U. S. History

Today is Monday, Sept. 27, the 270th day of 1965. There are 95 days left in the year.

Today's highlight history: On this date in 1854, the first great disaster to an Atlantic liner occurred when the steamship "Arctic"—traveling from Liverpool to New York, sank with 300 persons aboard.

On this date

In 1777, Gen. Sir William Howe completed the British occupation of Philadelphia after eluding George Washington's colonial army without a battle; Washington had to face the winter at Valley Forge.

In 1779, John Adams was appointed to negotiate a peace treaty with Great Britain.

In 1894, President Grover Cleveland proclaimed amnesty for persons convicted of polygamy.

In 1937, Adolf Hitler conferred with Benito Mussolini.

In 1939, the Polish capital city of Warsaw surrendered.

Ten years ago—President Nasser of Egypt announced that he had signed a "commercial agreement" with Czechoslovakia to exchange Egyptian cotton for military arms.

Five years ago—The nation buzzed with discussion after viewing the first of the Kennedy-Nixon television debates.

One year ago—The report of the Warren Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy was published and it found that Lee Harvey Oswald had acted on his own in shooting the President.

PONTIAC'S GTO -- The popular GTO is a new Pontiac series in 1966 and is available in the convertible model shown above as well as in a sports coupe and hardtop coupe. The 1966 GTO has its own specific front end including grille, parking lamps, hood ornamentation and has special tail lamp design consisting of horizontal painted louvers on each side of the rear end panel. The standard GTO is powered by a premium-fueled 389-cubic-inch engine with four-barrel carburetor and three-speed manual transmission. Also standard are new profile design bucket seats.

Pontiac Motor Division's 1966 models, from the Tempest to the Grand Prix offer extensive advancements in automotive styling, engineering safety and model availability.

The entire Tempest line has been redesigned, expanded by the addition of five new models including a new GTO series, and for the first time in an American passenger car, an overhead camshaft six-cylinder engine is offered as standard equipment on all Tempest models except the GTO.

A new series, the 2 Plus 2 with two models, and a new Star Chief Executive sports coupe has been added to the Pontiac line-up and all models, including the Grand Prix, incorporate both refinements in profile and complete changes in the front and rear.

"Our new models are a true reflection of Pontiac's policy of continuous and evolutionary progress in automotive design and with our new overhead cam engine we feel we are presenting a major engineering breakthrough as well," John Z. DeLorean, a General Motors vice president and Pontiac's general manager, said.

The Catalina, 2 Plus 2 and Grand Prix have an overall length of 214.8 inches, 0.2 inches longer than last year, and a wheel base of 121 inches. The Star Chief Executive and Bonneville measure 221.8 inches overall, a 0.1-inch increase, and their wheelbases are 124 inches. All Tempest models are one-half inch longer overall, measuring 206.4 inches, and have a 115-inch wheelbase.

All Pontiacs go on sale in dealer showrooms October 7. MODEL LINE UP Pontiac has increased the number of models from 26 last year to 33 in 1966.

The Tempest series includes a sports coupe, four-door sedan and station wagon. In addition to the four-door hardtop, which is new this year, a sports coupe, four-door sedan, four-door hardtop coupe, convertible and station wagon are available in the Tempest Custom.

A LeMans four-door hardtop is also new for 1966 and it joins a sports coupe, hardtop coupe and convertible in the series.

The new GTO series includes a sports coupe, hardtop coupe and convertible.

The Catalina series has a two and four-door sedan, a hardtop coupe, four-door hardtop, convertible and both two-seat and three-seat station wagon.

The new 2 Plus 2 series offers a hardtop coupe and a convertible.

A four-door sedan, four-door hardtop and a new model, a two-door hardtop coupe, are available in the Star Chief Executive series.

A Bonneville hardtop coupe, four-door hardtop, convertible and station wagon are offered in that series and the Grand Prix hardtop coupe tops Pontiac's new car list. TEMPEST New roof lines give the 1966 Tempests a completely new styling theme and big car appearance. Body side sculpturing is noted by its clean simplicity with a suggestion of sports car flair. Both coupes and convertibles are noticeably faster in profile with dropping belt lines and on the coupe a complete breakaway from conventional upper design prevails.

Tempest front end appearance retains the split grille design but has been styled to give an even wider stance. Deep tapered air intakes are framed with narrow bright chrome edges and recessed within the dynamically sculptured front end sheet metal. Each front end is identified by appropriate emblems and series identification.

The Tempest rear design features a strong chrome molding treatment that defines maximum width and lowness characteristics. Rear bumpers have shaped ends to complement the rear end tail lamp scheme.

The LeMans back end treatment has an additional bright ribbed full width molding between the tail lamps.

The GTO, a completely new 1966 series, has its own front end including grille, parking lamps, hood ornamentation. The side view shows a full length rocker panel molding plus rocker extensions on the front and rear fenders.

The GTO rear end has its own tail lamp design consisting of horizontal painted louvers on each side of the rear end panel. Each louver has a fine bright chrome edge and the red tail lamp lens is recessed in the slits between the louvers. Individual block letters are mounted on the central painted panel and a GTO initial ornament graces the deck lid.

PONTIAC

The 1966 Pontiacs have been restyled for a lower silhouette and wider appearance while maintaining the look of power and prestige identified with Pontiac.

The split grille and long lean directional nose theme continues to dominate the Pontiac front end look. The twin horizontal air intake openings on either side of the central nose are finished with bright bezels. New distinctive nameplates blend with the new long, low side appearance.

From the back long horizontal twin tail lamps are double chrome framed and ported into the rear sheet metal. Bright faceted letters spell Pontiac in the wide central panel. The 2 Plus 2, now a separate Pontiac series, takes on more individual identity in 1966. The front and rear will be easily identified with the bright red 2 Plus 2 emblem on hood and deck while the side will carry a very narrow stainless molding just below the lower body line.

To go with its new name there is Executive block lettering on the front fender side replacing the Star Chief script and a cluster of three horizontal star ornaments on the rear quarter fender.

The styling treatment of the Bonneville things and lengthens the side appearance and a new Bonneville crest appears on the long rear fender. The rear end is completely new with the emphasis on body sculpturing. Three bulb tail lamps are on either side with the winged Bonneville crest in the center. The distinction of the new Grand Prix begins with the front end where the dual air intakes are neatly outlined with a narrow chrome leading edge. Larger and more sharply defined rectangular parking lamps are suspended at the grille ends and Grand Prix initials are on the left side.

The rear end is a combination of three horizontal elements; painted louvers, fine chrome louver edges and red tail lamp and reflex material. The Grand Prix features a die cast full rocker panel molding side treatment on the lower body and small block lettering on the front fender and a new Grand Prix emblem at the rocker panel molding.

INTERIORS Pontiac's 1966 interiors include design refinements for greater convenience, added comfort and safety and a wide choice of colors and luxurious fabrics.

Four sets of seat belts, two for front seat occupants and two for the rear seats, are standard equipment on all models. A fully retractable outboard front belt is available as an option.

All new Profile bucket seats are introduced as standard on the 2 Plus 2, Grand Prix, GTO and all models of the LeMans except the four-door hardtop. These are fully contoured seats and backs.

The Tempest series offers four interior color choices and trim fabrics include body cloth for cushion and back inserts in combination with Jewel-tone Morrokide. All Standard interiors have solid vinyl floor covering with optional carpeting available.

All Morrokide Madrid grain in Jewel-tone finish with four color choices and door-to-door carpeting is standard on Tempest Custom models. Station wagons have a solid vinyl fully padded removable floor mat in the load area. The convertible is offered in three color selections.

The LeMans four-door hardtop, a new body style, is presented with four distinctive color choices; three are Jewel-tone expanded Morrokide and one - solid black - in pattern cloth. The two LeMans coupes and the convertible all have interior in expanded Morrokide with six color choices. Fully nylon-blend carpeting is standard.

All GTO models have their own interior identification on the doors and instrument panels along with six interior color choices in expanded Morrokide. Trim styling is completely new in the Catalina and body cloth is used in combination with Jewel-tone Morrokide. The convertible is all Morrokide and the station wagons use all Morrokide with a textured insert trim.

The Ventura custom interior is available on the Catalina sedan, coupe and four-door hardtop. The expanded Morrokide comes in a choice of five colors for the coupe and four door hardtop and four selections in the sedan.

Four expanded Morrokide interiors are offered in the 2 Plus 2 and the interior design is entirely individualized in this series.

Three cloth interiors for each Star Chief Executive model are available and five combinations of expanded Morrokide and cloth are offered for the four-door hardtop and coupe, four in the sedan.

The Bonneville coupe and four-door hardtop have interior options in cloth combined with expanded Morrokide - three color choices for the coupe and five for the four-door hardtop. They also each have the popular all Morrokide interiors available in a total of six colors. The convertible has genuine leather combined with expanded Morrokide and the station wagon is all expanded Morrokide with the load floor area in solid carpeting plus skid strips.

The elegant Bonneville Brougham option is available with cushions and backs upholstered in pattern cloth combines with matching color bolster cloth. Added luxury appointments enhance its new interior styling. The Brougham is available in a two-door hardtop coupe and convertible in addition to the four-door hardtop.

All expanded Morrokide in eight colors are scheduled for the Strato bucket front seat interiors of the Grand Prix. In addition, Profile bucket seats are included in two color choices for cloth inserted cushions and backs.

ACCESSORIES Pontiac's complete list of options and accessories has been expanded to give greater driving comfort, easier operation and simplified controls for safety.

The 1966 Pontiac automatic temperature control air conditioning features several control system revisions which gives a more consistent comfort range, improved performance and added reliability.

A driver controlled vacuum door lock system is available on all Pontiac models. The driver's door lock is the master control for all door locks. When it is depressed to lock, or raised to unlock, all other door locks will follow suit. Other doors may be operated manually, independently of the system, even though the master control is the lock position.

There are several options to the new design Profile seat which is standard on some 1966 models. A reclining seat, where the right-hand side reclines, includes a head rest on both the left and right-hand side. Head rests only, without the reclining feature, are also available. There is also a Profile bench front seat offered on some models which may be ordered with both reclining right-hand seat and two head rests.

Introduced as a new accessory for 1966 on Pontiac's engines is a General Motors Injection Reactor control system. Designed to meet California standards, the system injects air into the exhaust ports to reduce hydrocarbons.

Watch for the official announcement of when the new Pontiac's for 1966 will be on display at the Jarvis and Conn Motor Company, Pontiac Dealers, North Main Street, Sikeston, Mo.
